

Contents

Veritas Series Introduction	ix
Foreword by H.E. Paul Cardinal Poupard	xi
Editors' Introduction	000
Contributors	00
1 Perception, Transcendence and the Experience of God Jean-Yves Lacoste	I
2 Originary Inauthenticity – On Heidegger's Sein und Zeit Simon Critchley	21
3 'And There Shall Be No More Boredom': Problems with Overcoming Metaphysics in Heidegger, Levinas and Marion Joeri Schrijvers	50
4 Postmodern Philosophy and Jean-Luc Marion's Eucharistic Realism Philipp W. Rosemann	84
5 Husserlian Approaches to the Icon and the Idol Javier Carreño	111
6 Obscure Habit: Preambles to a Phenomenology of Christian Existence Jeffrey Bloechl	134

Contents

7	Doubled Reflection: Gadamer, Aesthetics and the Question of Spiritual Experience Nicholas Davey	151
8	From Description to Doxology: The Dogmatic Bases of Christian Vision Nathan Kerr	174
9	Original Immanence according to Michel Henry: The Intuition of Religion Jean Leclercq	201
10	The World without the Lie Karl Hefty	227
11	Phenomenology of Life Michel Henry	241
12	Suspending the Natural Attitude: Transcendence and Immanence from Thomas Aquinas to Michel Henry Conor Cunningham	260
13	The Thomistic Telescope: Truth and Identity John Milbank	288
14	Sacramental Aesthetics: Between Word and Flesh Richard Kearney	334
15	Heidegger, Dilthey and ‘the Being-Question’: Towards a Critical Appraisal of Heidegger’s Use of Hermeneutic Phenomenology’ Cyril McDonnell	370
16	Love of Enemies for a Lover of Wisdom, or, Can a Phenomenologist be a Philosopher? Felix Ó Murchadha	404
17	Anamnesis as Alterity? Ian Leask	421

Contents

18	‘The Words of the Oracle’: Merleau-Ponty and the ‘Philosophy of Freudianism’ Mauro Carbone	434
19	On the Critiques of Pairing and Appresentation in Merleau-Ponty and Levinas Timothy Mooney	448
20	Towards An Ethically Inspired Fundamental or First Theology Michael Purcell	495
	Sources and Acknowledgements	525
	Name and Subject Index	527